Asks Better Pensions.

Washington, D. C., January 13—During the consideration of a number of private pension bilis in the House to-day Representative Austin, of Tennessee, spoke in protest against the treatment which he declared veterans of the Spanish-American War are receiving at the hands of the Committee on Invalid Pensions Mr. Austin said that a pension of $6 a month, fixed for Spanish-American War soldiers who were disabled or who contracted disease in the line of duty was little short of an insult.

Mr. Austin, who is a Republican said he hoped when the Democrats organized the next House they would appoint a Spanish War veteran eschalman of the Invalid Pensions Committee and appoint to the other places on that committee men "with human kindness in their hearts and a sense of just'ce and fair play."

New York, January 13.—Nine out of ten strikes are due to employers assistants, not to any question of the money involved, is the opinion of Andrew Carnegie.

Mr. Carnegie said to-day, addressing the delegates to the National Civic Federation: "The more capital does for labor, the more protection the employer makes. I have not head any strikes in twenty years. I have not let any one have anything to say about labor but myself."

Scotland has outstripped the United States in its protection for working men, said Mr. Carnegie. He thought however, that the working man's complete, that the working therefore, making toward closer relationship between employer and employe.

Colonel, Roesevelt followed Mr. Carnegie. He was escorted to the speakers' stand by John Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers of America.

"I want to see this movement take the feature and the probably Mr. Brent intlimated yesterday with some grand jury was received with some gran ways enacted after conferences hetween wise leaders of labor and those men who are interested in labor for the hest interests of the country."

Colonel Roosevelt was positive in his belief that the Federal government was the only power in the land capable of dealing with great corporations. There is only one personal entity that can deal with the corporations, the said. "That entity is Uncle Sam Uncle Sam alone can do it. He can say, 'Behave yourself, Benave of your own accord, but if you don't, we'll make you behave."

Colonel Roosevelt renewed his attack on fellow servant decisions—I and objection raised to the term 'fossilized—which follow the eighteenth century, rather than the twentleth on the doctrine of the relation of fellow servants to each other, have worked, not justice but gross injustice. So has the liberty of contract law in many tens of thousands of cases a wage worker finds himself in such a position that he must work or starve."

The coloneladded that the States had relised to recognize such contracts, and predicted that the time would comewhen any other view would be impossible.

Inspection of Stock.

State Veterinarian J. G. Ferneyhough spoke on "The Official Relation of a State Veterinarian to the Practitioner of Veterinary Science." He indicated that these relations are very close, and said that they would be even closer in the fature. A large part of his address was taken up in discussion of the inspection of live stock and the part of the qualified veterinarian in this work. For his part, said Dr. Ferneyhough, the plan has been to indorse the work of the different men officially by simply stating that they are qualified veterinarians in Virginia. Any men who holds a certificate from the State board may also procure a certificate from the office of the State Veterinarian to the effect that his health certificates for live stock are officially indorsed.

IN MEMORIAM

CENT—"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, yea saith the spirit; for they rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

On Christmas morning a little past o'clock that ceaseless reaper, Death, took from our midst our beloved friend, MRS. MARY KENT. The deceased was sinty-one years and and a daughter of Dr. Arehlbaid. T. Foster, of Williamsburg, Va., and was born at Churchland, Norfolk county, Va. On February 20, 1870, and in Amherst county. The body was laid to rest in the family burying ground on the farm on which she had spent all of her married Hfe. Just hefore the casket was taken from the house her favorite hymn, "Jesus, lover of my soul," was sung by a quartet of friends. At the grave they sang, "Asleep in Jesus," Owing to the unavoidable absence of her pastor only a short burial service was read at the grave. The pullbearers were Messrs. Adea Kent, Lawrence Kent, Dr. Cabler, Waiter Wright, Joseph Winston and Oscar Baldock. The many beautiful first tributes were carried by Misses Katherine Wright, Lawrence Kent, Dr. Cabler, Waiter Wright, Shearer.

Her husband and three sons—John Scellen, Thomas Marvin and George Katherine Wright, Lettel Baldock and Mary Shearer.

Her husband and three sons—John Scellen, Thomas Marvin and George was a consistent member of Bethlem Methodist Church, and beloved by all who knew her. During the last days of her illness she called all of the loved ones around her led, giving each a loving message and blessing. She made the parting caster by saying: "I am perfectly willing to die and only wuit the Pather's call. Through all of my suffering friends and loved ones have left me, but He has never deserted me and I know I am His." She was a true, faithful, loving wife and mother; a kind, thoughtful, hespitable friend and neighbor. Loved ones and medical skill tried to give her rest and to bring back strength and health, but no human effort could stem the tide. A long and useful life ebbed away quietly and peacefully. May her sweet Christian influence remain to lead us whence she has gone. She has safether, "crossed the bar" and has mether Pilot "face to face," whom she so faithfully followed and served in this "vale of tears."
